

2018-2019 Title I School-Parent Compact

Linwood Public Charter School's faculty, staff, parents, and guardians participating in activities, services, and programs funded by Title I, Part A of the Elementary and Secondary Act (ESEA) will resolve to do the following to improve student achievement:

School Responsibilities

The faculty and staff of Linwood Public Charter School agree to do the following:

- Provide a safe and nurturing environment that promotes academic success.
- Provide parent-teacher conferences and frequent reports of children's progress through report cards, progress reports, and J Campus.
- Hold quarterly parent meetings that are offered at convenient times.
- Inform parents in a timely manner of school events through newsletters, the school website, call blasts, or other methods.
- Provide parents with reasonable access to staff through email, phone calls, and scheduled conferences.
- Provide interventions and accommodations based on the child's assessments.
- Provide enrichment, field trips, and well-rounded activities that are aimed to expose the child to science, technology, engineering, arts, and math.
- Provide family nights where parents and children can come together and experience fun ways to learn ELA, math, science, and social studies.
- Inform parents of a child's excessive absences and help develop a plan to reduce them.

Parent/Guardian Responsibilities

- I will read all information sent home by LPCS so that I will be informed of academic topics and events that are planned at the school.
- I will respond promptly to school communication (e.g. permission slips, surveys, phone calls, etc.).
- I will assure that my child completes all homework assignments by designating a suitable time and place at home. I will also look over my child's homework, and attempt to help him/her with any problems he/she may have.
- I will assure that my child reads at home for at least 30 minutes every day.
- I will limit my child's use of television, video games, cell phone use, social networking to encourage and foster a love of reading, studying, and enjoying family.
- I will make sure my child arrives at school on time because I recognize that consistent school attendance is directly related to the academic success of my child.
- I will check my child's J Campus and Class Dojo accounts daily to view their academic progress and behavior.
- I will keep my phone number, address, and emergency contacts updated with the school.
- I will attend all parent meetings and conferences or send a representative on my behalf.
